

The Fagans & Nancy Kerr

The Harp, Tempe, 8pm Fri 30th March

$20/$15

Relax and refresh after the NSW election

The Fagans, Australia's foremost folk family, combine dazzling harmonies and fine musicianship across both traditional and contemporary songs, with a strong political bent. This is their only Sydney gig for 2007.

Kate Fagan: "...is going to be worth following for the next decade or two."
- Bernard Zuel, Sydney Morning Herald.

Nancy Kerr & James Fagan: "Quite simply the most refreshing, impressive and compelling new combo I've seen for ages." - John Kirkpatrick.

"the complete line-up is a treat that doesn't present itself often enough"

A Greens benefit concert for the 2007 federal election

